

How each of below people positively impacted your class experience in few words

Alexander Soler

Alex was so in tune with the course and the code. He was a big help in explaining things differently, in a way that was more understandable, when ever he spoke about the code.

Antoinette Hardy

Toni was quiet most the course, but behind the scenes, she learned so much and wow'd us with her final project!

Clive Mangerere

Clive was an inspiration. He had his struggles but he kept on pushing. One of the top notch students who really grasped the concept of coding.

Dena Hornsby

Dena struggled with her confidence from time to time, but in the end, she pushed through! Very inspirational!

Haben Zaid

Haben established his place in this class as being the go to guru for help with coding. He understood it, and knew how to articulate it in a way that was easier to understand for those less familiar with coding concepts. In the end, he struggled with the backend, but he pushed his project to completion! Way to go, Haben!!!

Emily Nunes

Emily was so eager to help those around her with their projects and/or HW. She is known for taking lots of notes. In the end, she was able to help a few of us prepare for our presentations. Always cheerful!

Diego O Hernandez Velazquez

Diego was so funny, with his cat filter in Zoom!

Mamadou Anne
